

The King County Recording offices will not accept any forms with writing in the 1" margin.

As an example, no writing/stamps should occur in the white border area of this page. Please make sure your notary follows these guidelines . The City also has a notary you can use.

Note: if you place your completed form over top of this sheet you can make sure that there is nothing outside the box.