

TEMPORARY REAL ESTATE SIGNS
BDMC 18.92.060

APPLICATION NO. _____

TEMPORARY REAL ESTATE SIGN
APPROVAL CRITERIA (ON AND OFF PREMISE)

A. Residential Property

“For Sale” and “Sold” Signs

- “For Sale” and “sold” signs shall be limited to one sign per street frontage and placed wholly on the property for sale.
- Signs shall not exceed six (6) sq ft in area per side and (six) 6 ft in height.

Open House/Directional Signs (Permit Required - $10.00 Fee Per Sign)

- Open House/directional signs shall be limited to sandwich board signs only and limited to one sign per street frontage on-premise for sale and three off-premise signs. However, if a broker/agent has more than one house open for inspection in a single development or subdivision, broker/agent is limited to four (4) off-premise sandwich board signs in the entire development.
- Signs are permitted during daylight hours only and only during the open house hours.
- Signs shall not exceed five (5) sq ft in area per side.
- Sign may be placed along the periphery of a public right-of-way provided it does not interfere with traffic safety. Signs may not be attached to a utility pole or traffic safety device.

REQUIRED INFORMATION

Height of Sign _____ ft

Dimensions of Sign _____ ft x _____ ft = _____ sq ft

What Sign Says _____

Color of Letters _____ Color of Background _____

Issued Date _____

PERMITS EXPIRE ON DECEMBER 31ST OF THE CURRENT CALENDAR YEAR

B. Commercial Property

Undeveloped Commercial and Industrial Property “For Sale or Rent” Signs

- Real estate signs shall be limited to one (1) sign per street frontage advertisement.
- Signs shall not exceed thirty-two sq ft in area per side and six (6) ft in height.

Developed Commercial and Industrial Property “For Sale or Rent” Signs

- Real estate signs shall be limited to one (1) sign per street frontage advertisement.
- Free-standing signs shall not exceed thirty-two sq ft in area per side and six (6) ft in height.
- Free-standing signs shall be located more than 15 ft from any abutting property line or public right-of-way line.
- If one face of the building is less than ten (10) ft from the property line, sign shall be placed on the building or in a window. For rental space in multi-occupancy buildings, one (1) sign, four sq ft in area, is allowed per window.

All commercial property signs shall only be permitted during the time that property is for sale or rent.

Signature

Date

Print